TribeTalk

12 THINGS YOU CAN DO
IF YOU ENCOUNTER ANTISEMITISM IN COLLEGE

1 Call campus security and the police if you are physically threatened or there is a call for violence.

2 Call campus security if you encounter a swastika or other antisemitic graffiti. In the absence of available campus security, call the police.

3 If it is safe, document the scene by taking pictures or a video with time and date stamp.

4 Reach out to Stand With Us for guidance.

5 Reach out to a trusted religious adviser at your school's Hillel or Chabad.

6 Report it to reportcampushate.org and stopantisemitism.org.

7 Report the incident as a bias using your school's reporting procedure.

8 Ask campus administrators to publicly condemn the incident.

9 Organize an event with like-minded students to condemn the incident.

10 Write an op-ed for your student newspaper.

11 Reach to your parents for guidance.

12 Reach to to TribeTalk - we will help you find the right assistance.